

Monthly Newsletter-December 2013

INTERMED XP prepares to close out the Year 2013 and what better moment to thank you from the bottom of our heart and to wish you a Happy Holiday Season and most importantly a Happy and Prosperous New Year 2014!

Our readers can count on us in the Year 2014 to continue to share with you glimpses of the future-whether with new techniques or products- that might improve the quality of care furnished to your animals and pets.

May you have a winning season with success and prosperity at home, on the farm, in the stables and on the tracks with abundant good health for all our two legged and four legged friends!
