

December 2015

Published periodically by Intermed XP

---

As 2015 winds down with the festive holiday season still in swing, allow us to pause for just a moment to transmit to each of our loyal customers and partners as well as to those who have recently joined us –our sincere gratitude and appreciation for your business and cooperation this year and also to extend our best wishes for a ...

Merry Christmas and Happy, Healthy, New Year 2016!

With the dawn of this new year, Intermed XP will continue to share news, ideas and viewpoints about the future with you in the hope of renewing and improving the wellbeing of your animals with innovative products, procedures and technology.

May you embark now on a new season of success and prosperity in every domain of undertaking....be it in shops, clinics, stables, racetracks or offices....and may you, your families and personnel ...without forgetting your animals....enjoy all the joy and benefits of excellent health!

The Editor

